Biography

My name is Adam and, at the time of my election, I was 19 years old; clearly the youngest Councillor on Bay of Colwyn Town Council ever to be elected.

I am honoured to serve the ward I've grown up in on the Council and look forward to the challenge of being a Councillor.

I currently study Politics BA Hons at Manchester Metropolitan University and have taken various roles on in the University, but the central attention after my studies will be representing the views of my constituents on Bay of Colwyn Town Council.

I currently attend Generation Church in Manchester; otherwise I attend Sure Hope Church in Old Colwyn when I'm home.
