Biography

I am very proud to represent the residents and businesses of Rhos on Sea as a Bay of Colwyn Town Councillor. I live in Rhos on Sea with my partner, Dave, and my daughter. My partner runs a small business here in Rhos on Sea and I have always been a key advocate for local businesses; supporting and championing them as much as possible, something which I hope to continue within my official capacity.

I am a Lecturer at Coleg Llandrillo, Rhos campus and have worked at Rydal Penrhos as an English and Drama teacher and Prestatyn High as an Intervention Support Tutor for GCSE English and Supply Teacher. I previously volunteered with Rhos on Sea Scout Group as an Assistant Scout Leader and volunteered as the Bumps and Babies Coordinator for the charity National Childbirth Trust.

I am one of the founder members of the Dementia Friendly Rhos steering group. I run a small Book Club in Rhos on Sea in conjunction with the Conwy Library Services. I am an ambassador for Wales for Peace, with WCIA and Coleg Llandrillo. I am also a member of the Victoria Pier Trust and hope to once again see this pier an active and prosperous part of our community and furthermore hope that the Colwyn promenade renovations will extend to Rhos on Sea in the near future.

I care passionately about Rhos on Sea and surrounding townships, their regeneration and the well-being of all who live, work and visit here.
