Biography

I'm originally from the Rhyl and Dyserth area. Having served in The North Wales Police and Metropolitan Police, I retired to Colwyn Bay.

I have served on Bay of Colwyn Town Council since 2007 with a break of 2 years from 2013-15.

My interests are many and varied. I'm passionate about the environment and I am secretary to a local environmental organisation. I'm an active committee member with Colwyn in Bloom.

As a town councillor I support Disability Rights and Access, Music and Arts, Fairtrade. I also take on 'case work' whereby I assist people with passport applications, job applications etc.

The Bay of Colwyn Town Council selects councillors as representatives for outside organisations. I serve on: 217 Colwyn Bay ATC, Nant Y Groes Management Advisory Group, North and Mid Wales Association of Local Councils. North Coast Transport Liaison Committee, Andrew Fraser Memorial Trust, Bay Life Steering Group, Colwyn Bay Chamber of Trade, Conwy Voluntary Access Group and CCBC Local Forum.
