Councillor David Carr - Register of Interests

The law, and the Council's Code of Conduct, require Councillors to declare personal interests. Some personal interests have to be recorded by the Councillor in the statutory public register, within 28 days of your election, or appointment to office, and have to be updated by the Councillor within 28 days of any change. (There is an exemption from having to declare 'sensitive information', the Clerk can advise about this.)

Councillors still have to declare any relevant interests (including those in this Register) where they relate to matters under consideration at a meeting – please see the Council's Code of Conduct for guidance.
